Flake lorenz height

Very high build and thin Berlin accent Deadpan humor Keyboardist for the rock band Rammstein Has a young daughter named Annie. He suffered a bad attack from food poisoning while on tour, lost 10% of his body weight, but was still performed on stage! I wanted to be a doctor. I used to be a tool maker. He obtained his first piano from his parents at the age of 15. He is called Flake because some Latin American friends used to call him Flaco, which means thin in Spanish, because of his thin look from a young age, and the name stuck. Sometimes called Doktor Lorenz. [commenting on the rainy and cold weather during the filming of faifsch's music video] I really like rain. I was born in November, i.e. I'm half amphibious. [Echo acceptance speech 2011] We want to thank you... [electricity supplier] Vattenfall, because without them it would be dark here. We'd love to sing with Helge Schneider, but we haven't asked him yet. They disapprove of religions that become rigid institutions. I also believe that religious fanaticism and missionary work are dangerous. [2014] I miss the GDR event today. More than the bands of that era. I prefer to play in the US because the attitude to music is more relaxed. [in the United States] It is a sick and decadent country without culture. [What do you miss about the GDR?] It was nice not always to have to choose from so many different forms of a product. My life was more natural, for example, I only had strawberries in summer. [When Till hits himself in the head with the microphone during Sehnsucht he uses artificial blood or is he really hurt?] The blood is real because Till beats himself in the same place every night. I don't get it, either. It can take a lot it seems. [How does your leisure time go by? Do you have hobbies?] Food, drink, sleep... [What did you look like when you were a teenager?] First I was a fat kid of long-haired blues. Then I became a kind of punk with colorful pants and western stuff that I got in return like Doc Marten and Shell-Parkas. I'd like to live somewhere in the ocean near the hills. I grew up in the Prenzlauer Berg area of Berlin. This is the district where I still live. And when I go to our rehearsals, for example, I always go through my old-school building. [2009] I can't think of anything I wouldn't do for the band. I once lived in Fehrbrieler Straße 7. Now you fancy it! In the same house, there was Frau Fett (Mrs Fat) and Herr Fleischfresser [Mr Meateater]. I swear it's true. Astrid Fett in an apartment. Wolfgang Fleischfresser in the other. I also have witnesses. When I joined my first band, I realised I couldn't play modern music. I still can't! I only joined when the band already existed. It took me about a year to decide whether I want to be part of Rammstein or not. I have [...] just appeared as a guest. [...] The schwein band Oliver Riedel, Till Lindemann, Richard had recruited Schneider as a drummer. [...] Barely any kind of emotional relationship with Schneider. Scholle [Richard] Didn't get me right. Olli was scared. I thought it was a bit weird. I just liked Till. Paul, with whom he had lived for eight years, got nervous terribly. [...] I would have liked not to see him for a year. Even if the GDR survived, I would still have stayed with a musician. The increased size of the world also brought the danger of being compared to all international acts. The bands that were in the east were the only ones there, and if you succeeded there, you were successful. I miss the simplicity. You walked into a bar, ordered a beer, and you got a beer... I didn't ask you if you wanted to, with or without head, top or bottom foam... It really gets on my nerves that they have all these options that I don't really want. I'm 6'1 too but my head is 1/8 my full height I realized is the reason why people think I'm 6'3 or 6'4 even. TK2005 said on 24/Feb/13 I met them all in person last May. In order of higher to shorter: Ollie, Flake, Till, Richard and Paul. I know Schneider is taller than Richard, but I didn't see him being next to Till, so I can't confirm who's taller there. Until it stood about my height of 5'7 and I had a good inch or two about my 6-foot-tall boy friend. He was in disguise at the time, but he was wearing military boots. I would say that these give us at least one of additional height. Trent said on 28/Jan/13 My best guess is 1.8 inches between Till and Axel. Click here on this photo there I've lined up with other photos so I can see where their skull lines would be from. Normally this is about 1 inch in a man; however, Till is taller than the average man, so that inches is a good estimate. 1 and a half of these fills the void, so an estimated 1.8 inches between them. The footwear is unknown, but we know that I've seen always wear military-style boots, so I'm doing my best guess and saying I had - 1.5 inches of footwear and I'll assume that Axel had a typical 1 inch. So if we see Axel it's about 62.6, the total difference between him and Till, by my best estimate, is about 2.3 inches, making up to 6' and some change. Yes, I can't be absolutely sure of that, but in my opinion it's the best guess we have. His guesses seem to be mine, but they are more or less 1 inch. One person I'm still not sure of is Doom. It always looks very similar to Till, but sometimes it can appear only a little taller, sometimes just a shorter hair. Best guess I would say anywhere from a strong 6 feet to weak 6'1. Mathew said on January 27/13@Trent: I definitely see more of 3 - 4 cm between Till and Axel than a full 2. If we give Axel 190 cm I think until you see 186 - 187 cm. However, as you declared the footer work is unknown. I agree with his estimates of the height difference between Till and Flake. I think 1.25 - 1.5 is the place. I'd lean towards 1.5. And estimating the 3.25 difference between Flake and Ollie looks very accurate too, give or take a little. So I turn around if Till is 186 cm, I have Flake at 190 cm, Ollie 198 cm, Doom 184 cm, Richard 176 cm, and Paul 171 cm. And those are the heights I think they are. Now, if Till is 184 cm, till 2cm of all these guys and falls into place, which is the shortest I think they could be (but I would certainly still say it possible). Trent said on 26/January/13The whole band is surprisingly overtaken by fingairs. All over the Internet you have Till at 6'3 and 4'4 Ollie at heights like 6'8! Until until with boxer Axel Shulz: who I think is around 62.5 watching him with the Klitschko brothers. See the photo here: Click here the difference looks ~2 inches for me. That said, Up " in general " is in boots, so I'll guess there's more like 2.25 - 2.5 inches among these men. Axel is billed at 6'3, but I think this is a rounded measure or possibly earlier in the day. See him with the Klitscho brothers. I have seen them listed in 6'6 and 6'7 respectively, 6'7 and 6'8 respectively, along with 6'6.5 and 6'7.5 respectively. So I think it's fair to give them these latest ads and assume they play roundly sometimes. Click here on this photo is best to compare Axel to the shortest of the two brothers at 6'6.5. Axel doesn't even get to his eyebrow spikes, so in a guy with a head presumably bigger than average at 6'65, we're seeing a good 4 inches difference I think. That said, the ground leans slightly to Axel's disadvantage, so I think it's fairer to say between his 3.75 - 4 between them. This makes Axel 62.5 - 62.75 range. So since it's about 2.25 - 2.5 inches taller than Till, as I said, I think Till is about 60.25 actually. Until you see about 1.25 - 1.5 inches shorter than Flake: Click here so I'll put Flake in range 61.5 - 61.75. Flake, I would say, is about 3.25 inches under Ollie, so he would put Ollie around 64.75 - 6.5. Trent said the 12/Jan/13Els looks like 6'1 with 6'3 boxer Axel Schulz. imgur.com/wNz25m pretty sure Axel is actually a weak 6'3 looking at him with the Klitschko brothers. So until you see 184 cm, I would be surprised if it was 6'0. Also, I would be surprised if the 192 cm listed around the net were accurate too. I have a 6'1 -ish impression on Chad Smith's photo, 6'2 sure in Biedermann's photo, and 6'0 -ish in Vin Diesel's photos, but I don't really trust these. The only photo of Dave Grohl I've seen the two looked even, but the photo was at a terrible angle. Until the day he gives a date in his height himself, I think it will remain a bit of a mystery. I think the 186cm list suits you perfectly, but there's not really as much evidence to base your height on. Trent said on 7/Jan/13 FS responds, but he's soft-spoken and there's someone screaming about him, so I couldn't say either. I would estimate 215 pounds or so today. Back in the Volkberal era it could have been 240sh. I incline towards him being 184cm range, because of the people I've seen him with having been more likely to have their own exaggerated heights rather than downgraded, but he's still a tough guy to be sure of. Spock said on 6/Jan/13 I agree trent, a big fog. Once Elis posted this video: Click here This guy ask how much weights?, can anyone hear the answer? Spock said on 5/Jan/13That one with James Hatfield is fake, check the contours and background, but they are the same size. Trent said 5/Jan/13Th is not the best photo to judge height, but at least you can see they would be similar. I'm still not sure about Till. We really have evidence that it could be anywhere from like 5'11 - 6'2. He looks 5'11 - 6' alongside Chad Smith and Vin Diesel. Then it looks like 6'15 with Hatfield. Look 6' with Dave Grohl. Looked 6'1 with a boxer 6'3. It looks 6'1 with Biedermann. But then he says a 6-year-old swimmer was taller than himself. People who have known him seem to have seen him all the way from 5'11 - 6'4 and his online height lists are all over the place. This guy is a Elis said James Hatfield's 3/Jan/13Next Click Here Trent said 5/December/12I86 is a reasonable estimate. It's hard because rock stars don't think about how actors do it on the red carpet, and their footwear is all over the place. Your height claims and descriptions are less likely to be accurate too because height is not important as it is in performance. The funny thing is that the difference between Till and Chad Smith (listed at 6'3) is greater than between him and this biedermann type. Maybe he's not a 6'4 lawmaker? I'm still inclined towards 184, but 186 is a respectable estimate. Mathew said the 4/Dec/12This is next to Paul Biedermann (6'4) Click here I would be surprised if a 6-0 guy looked so tall next to 6'4. You can look 183 - 184 cm in photos, certainly not it, although you can also occasionally go for 190 cm in photos too. The photo of Vin Diesel, I never trust her at all because it is Vin and brings some of the most dodgiest work. The only picture of Till I've seen with Dave Grohl is at a useless angle, but there might be another one that's out there that I've never stumbled upon. If Till is 186 cm (which I think is fair to give him if you have alongside Chad Smith, Munky, Claude Oliver Rudolph, and Paul Biedermann) he would give Flake 190 cm, Doom 184 cm, Richard 176 cm, Paul 171 cm, and Ollie 198 cm. Trent said the 4/December/12, of course, I still think it might be a little over 6 feet, and some have even argued a little underneath. I see some chance of 6'1 than something like 5'11 though. So don't take these estimates as my last for the whole band. That's only if I took Till at 6 feet. My best guess is that it's a fraction of more than 6 feet 6. So I would put all estimates below some fraction. Trent said on 4/December/12Yeah, this photo is very good. The ground is always so slightly convex though, and Doom's head is slightly tilted downwards. They seem to all be in some kind of boots too, so the footwear is more or less a given. Up to about 6'. I think, He and Vin Diesel, Chad Smith and Dave Grohl are good examples of why I think so. If we take it's 6', then based on this photo Click here I calculate all the band members: Flake: Strong 6'2 Richard: Weak 5'9 Paul: Weak 5'6 Doom: Like Till, around 6' even Ollie: Strong 6'5 Mathew said on 3/Dec/12The photo Spock posted was fair enough for the comparison: Click here is another band: Click here I always believed till is taller than Doom, Doom here are pictures of any of them being taller than the other, but Till's are more compelling: Click here Click here Spock said the 26/Nov/12Till always looks great, it's clearly around 1.85. He's burly and with a big head, which is why some people don't think he's tall, but it's rare to see people older than him. say, you have to be at least 1.85 not to look short next to Flake (which is around 1.90). Click here Rob, what do you think about the other Rammstein members? Here's a good photo to compare: Click here Trent said the 23/Nov/12 I don't know. He himself a little shorter than Chad Smith. It looked very similar in height to Dave Grohl and Vin Diesel (though as I said Vin was you could say in big lifts). He also seemed to be kind of puffing himself to appear taller alongside Till, and I saw people comment on it on a Rammstein fan site. Vin is honestly quite pathetic with his height complex. But anyway I would go more for 6' - 6'1 than 6'1 - 6'2. It's weight is hard to really pin down, because it seems to change quite a lot. It is always muscular, but sometimes it has had a hanging intestine and fallen chest, and has sometimes had veins appearing and abdominals defined. In fact, I saw an article where he said that every time he goes on tour he swims for hours every day to lose a lot of weight to prepare, and said he lost 25kg going up on the tour. I think it's normal for ex-athletes to struggle with weight, because they get used to taking in that massive amount of calories, but they don't burn them anymore. But I guess it could also be that he wins on purpose to help build muscle and then cuts. Mathew said on 21/Nov/12Trent says 1/Nov/12 I think it's 6' - 6'0.5. Until you could also have a heel advantage in this image. Mathew said on 10/May/11 yes it says 9/May/11 Until it's definitely not 190 cm! Look at some photos of Rammstein, and even photos. Until it's not very high, it's great. I would say that its height is about 180-185 max. That's my opinion ... You can actually look 190cm sometimes, but it's more consistent than you see 186/187, and as short as 184 times so 186cm is fair. Frankstein said the May 10/11Olli is more than 11 cms taller than till=182.5 Doom=183 Richard=175 Paul=171 Oliver=198 Mathew said the 9/May/11Oliver is at least 11 cm taller than Till, it's pretty huge. If Oliver was really only 193 cm until it would be 182 max. Doom 181 - 182, Flake 185 - 186, Paul 166 - 167 etc, but I don't see them that short. Roman said on May 9/11 that it's 7/May/11 that it's 6.05ft by the way someone knows the height of OOMPH's dero go! and the height of the singer Der Graf of Unheilig? Braun has already responded below about Dero Elis says that the 21/March/11 Dero is not so tall, it is described as 178 cm here... Click here is the smallest of Oomph and many girls in Germany call it short... I don't know about the other members of Oomph, they always seemed huge to me ... So krap at 195 cm I wouldn't be surprised ... And yes he said the 9/May/11Till is definitely not 190 cm! Look at some photos of Rammstein, and even photos. Until it's not very high, it's great. Mathew said on 9/May/11Frankstein says the 5/May/11 If Till is 193 cm OLIVER MUST BE 210, COME ON, Till is not a giant! he is a big guy and strongly above average, 6ft to 6.1 is right. Yes, a 6.4 cm Until Oliver at 6'9 give or take, Flake around 6'6, Doom about 6'4, would be almost the highest band ever assembled. A strong 6'1 is more realistic, where Oliver is close to 6'6, Flake 6'3, Doom 6'1. braun said on 7/May/11he's 6.05ft by the way does anyone know the height of OOMPH's dero go! and the height of the singer Der Graf of Unheilig? Craven said that on 4/May/11 Rammstein's security worked on the last European tour. I'm 183 cm. We were both in boots and both at the same level as the It looks taller than it really is. It may seem like this height. If you are 182 years old at least, when you wear boots. 183 maximum, but I would stay with 6'0'5 Mathew said the 3/April/11Fake is 6'3, Oliver is 6'5.5 - 6'6 range. Paul is about 5'7.5. I think Till is at least as tall as Doom if not higher. Up to 186 cm makes sense. Klaus said the 1/Apr/11ok ok Till is 1.83 or 1.85 m and looked great because he wears high boots. Frankstein said on 29/Mar/11@ulrich that he would downgrade Paul to 5'7, maybe 5'7.5, upgrade scales to 6'3 and olli to 6'5 at least, it really looks giant, I'm with the rest, maybe until you can look even 6'2 with your boots and that would be the reason why you often look as tall as Doom who doesn't wear high shoes often, especially in ulrich said the 28/Mar/110 and I don't think until it's a solid 6ft3 if you're 6ft 3 then peace should be at least 6ft that it's impossible if you look carefully at the DU HAST video I know that until you're a little bit more of Paul so my conclusions are TILL 6FT with boots it can be a solid 6ft1.5 RICHARD 5FT 9 with shoes can be 5ft 11 PAUL 5FT 8 DOOM 5FT 1 FLAKE 5FT 2 OLLI 6FT 4 Frankstein said the 27/Mar/11Si Till is 1.90 Oliver is 2.08 Klaus said the 25/Mar/11Roman, it is ever 1.86m Until you see 1.90 m and Richard is 1.76 m only? Frankstein said on 24/Mar/11@Rampage Clover: Click here to see how Until you are seen in public walking alongside Paul, a legit 186-188 tpe definitely tower about a 171 (give or take 1cm) type, Until it can't be 186, it's a strong more on average, 6ft is fair. According to this video it would also boost Oliver, he looks giant! Now I think it's 200cm ... Roman said 23/Mar/11Recent recently revised its view on Rammstein's growth. Flake 188 cm Up to 183 cm Schneider, 183-185 cm Pau 173 cm Richard-? (because of the shoes you can't tell your height, but in full it can be the same height with Paul) Oliver 195-196 cm Click here The bottom line, I've shown how people will look 178 cm tall (I saw a photo of fans Height 178 cm with Oliver), compared to Flake. Rampage(-_-)Clover said the 23/Mar/11Can look 6ft4-5 in those boots I think personally 186cm is a bit low... 6ft2 (188cm) is closer Frankstein said on 21/Mar/11Roman says on 19/March/11 Up to 186cm Schneider 185-186cm Flake 1 88- 190 cm Paul 174-175 cm (it is at eye level Up) Richard 176 cm Oliver 196 cm -----1) Richard has Paul at least 4 cm And Richard himself may very well be 175 2) Even and Schneider are very often towered by Oliver that can't be just 10 cms taller 3) There's surely a lot more difference between Flake and Till (and Schneider) So my announcement they are: Up to 181-182 cm (you can look 185-6 with your industrial boots) Schneider 182-183 (you often see hair taller than Till and very rarely a shorter hair , perhaps because of his shoes) Flake 192-193 (easily 8-9 cm taller than Till and Schneider and often wears flat shoes , even in concerts) Paul 170-171 cm (always looks short or at least short in each crowd, and a 175-year-old wouldn't, at all) Richard 175 (more is hard otherwise he would have looked at least as tall as Till on stage during 1998-2003 concerts where he used to wear mansonish high platform shoes of almost 10cm and never looked as tall as Till that on stage he could reach 185+ with his boots) Oliver 198 (often Till towers, Richard, Paul and Schneider and still noticeably higher than Flake) Elis the 21 /Mar/11Dero is not so high, it is described as 178 cm here ... If Richard was 5'10 he would have looked as tall as Till on stage in 97...2004 tours as he used to wear those big Manson-style platform shoes that looked at least 10 cms high, but Richard never looked as tall as Till on stage. Vin is 5'11 to MUCH more and Until you look 1 inch taller and Dave Gahan, let's say 5'9 is above till's eye level so he's standing less than 4 inches shorter than up, maybe 3 and we have until ad 6'1, consider that Till is in costume on stage (fans can recognize this shirt) so with very thick boots that can very well give you ulterior advantage by making it from 6' to 6' 05 Korn is my favorite band said the 11/Mar/11 just meant that Vin Diesel looks like a girl when compared to Till Londemann. If Vin is 5'11.5 that means Till is over 6'1. Elis said the 11/Mar/11 I'll never come back without some "presents" One for Frankstein: Click here and another for Mathew: Click here The problem here is that no one really knows about Dave Gahan's height. I think under 5-10, the most likely is 5/9. It is considered as 5-8, also ... Mathew said the 9/Mar/11Rampage(-_-)Clover says the 9/Mar/11 Can look at anything from 60 to 63 OK. Jonathan Davis is similar to him in that regard. Clover said the 9/Mar/11Can look at anything from 60 to 63 Frankstein said on 8/Mar/11 It's very complicated: sometimes Christoph looks a lot taller than Till, sometimes it's the opposite. Also Till looks different with two celebs listed at the same height, sometimes Flake looks much taller than Till, sometimes just a little. Maybe we can only choose which photo is the most reliable considering the camera angle, posture and distance of the camera and I think that the one has all of them at 100%. Alberto said the 8/Mar/11He is complicated because it has strange proportions. It is very robust with a huge head and jaw that makes shorter. John Cena has the same problem. Wise height, you see about 6'1 at least. Maria said the 8/Mar/11Es looks about 3 inches taller than Korn's 5'11 Munky. Until he's a pure man. Mathew said on 7/Mar/11Till alongside 5'6 list Simone Simmons: Click here Mathew said the 7/Mar/11@ Frankstein, you're right, two of these photos I sent were rubbish. The first of you are pre-concert photos has a tilt though, down to the right. But if you want to claim less than that for Doom, it's shorter than till. I think they're a fairer representation of the band's heights. Click here Click here second you can see that everyone has the exact same account, so no one try to claim lifts or something stupid like this, this is false. Dave said the 7/Mar/116'2 out of bed Frankstein said the 7/Mar/11Loi Elis, this place about the elboots overload, is much more than 10 cms for someone! Mathew these photos are useless, the first is only from neck to toe, the second is still a professional photo and even richarr looks taller than the flake that is absolute joke, they are at a different ground level and at a different distance from the camera, the pre-concert photo I posted is perfect, they are all standing at the same distance from the camera and Till has higher boots (each fan knows his LIFAD four boots). Also the photo with Andrew Fletcher and Martin Gore shows that Till can't even be 6'1. These are my ads: Oliver Riedel: 6'6 (198cm) Christian Flake Lorenz: 6'3 (190cm) Christoph Doom Schneider: 6'0.5 or 6'1 (183cm)Up Lindemann: 6' (181cm) Richard Kruspe: 5'9 (175cm) (and often wears big platform shoes) Paul Landers: 5'7 (170cm) give or take 1cm each
